Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-8 and 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Geyer. Note Figures 3, 4 and 6 and column 6, line 62 through column 7, line 20.

Claims 1, 2, 17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schell. Note Figure 5, column 3, lines 38-54 and column 10, lines 47-58.

Claims 1-8 and 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mazur. Note Figure 3 and column 3, line 35 through column 4, line 23.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9, 10 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Seki et al in view of Schell. Seki et al discloses the claimed invention except for the utilization of a nitrogen oxide sensor. Schell teaches that it is known to substitute a nitrogen oxide sensor for monitoring the exhaust gas as set forth at column 10, lines 47-58. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to the exhaust gas sensor of Seki et al by providing a nitrogen oxide sensor as taught by Schell in order to better control the valve timing in order to aid in the prevention of nitrogen oxides in the exhaust gas.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3747

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references of Kobayashi et al, Yoshioka et al, Suzuki and Currie et al are cited to show EGR valves controlled by oxygen sensors. The reference of Nissan is cited to show valve timing controlled by an air-fuel ratio sensor.
